Dear Zhiguo Meng,

Regarding presentation of the following accepted papers:

- PASSIVE MICROWAVE PROBING MARE BASALTS IN MARE IMBRIUM USING CELMS DATA FROM CHANG'E-2 SATELLITE
- ABNORMAL MICROWAVE THERMAL EMISSION IN MARIUS HILLS REVEALED BY CELMS DATA FROM CHANG'E-2 LUNAR ORBITER

The 2017 IEEE International Geoscience and Remote Sensing Symposium (IGARSS 2017) will be held on 23-28 July 2017 in Fort Worth, Texas, USA. IGARSS is a premier event in remote sensing and provides an ideal forum for obtaining up-to-date information about the latest developments, exchanging ideas, identifying future trends, and making networking with the international geoscience and remote sensing community. Technical sessions will be held over a five day period from July 24-28, with tutorials and social events offered July 23, and various meetings throughout the entire week from July 23-28, 2017.

Because you have registered and paid all fees necessary, we invite you to join us at the 2017 IEEE International Geoscience and Remote Sensing Symposium in Fort Worth, Texas, USA on 23-28 July 2017. You may obtain more information from the web at: <http://www.igarss2017.org/> or please feel free to contact me.

This letter of invitation is not an offer to contribute to the financial costs of registration, travel to and from the conference, or subsistence while in the United States. This invitation is issued on the expectation that presenting authors will register for the conference and pay the required fees as notified on the website by the due date. Authors are responsible for the entire travel costs, to and from their home countries, including hotel expenses during the conference period.

Again, congratulations; we look forward to welcoming you to Texas.

Sincerely yours,

Joel T. Johnson
